

POINTS OF PRIDE #22

01 JACKIE GARDEN

This Lunar New Year is all about the Rabbit. The holiday, which is also known as Chinese New Year and Spring Festival, kicked off on Sunday, January 22 but at Jackie Carden Elementary, students celebrated on Friday, January 20 by wearing traditional Asian clothing, making lanterns and celebrating student culture campus wide. In Crowley ISD diversity is our strength!

02 STEM

Crowley ISD's STEM program was featured in the January 2023 issue of Texas EcosySTEM. An online publication from the Texas Education Agency. The feature included a picture of STEM Day in Crowley ISD and shared that our specialists rotate through grade levels co-teaching STEMulating lessons!

03 CROWLEY MONTESSORI

Crowley Montessori Academy enjoyed having their first set of amazing volunteers to help with lunch duty this past Tuesday, January 17 and Wednesday, January 18. Students were able to see parents, community members and active duty military in the cafeteria serving and interacting with Crowley Pride. We appreciate you!

04 7-ELEVEN GRAND OPENING

Wednesday, January 18 was a great morning in Crowley ISD as students from Oakmont Elementary School and the North Crowley High School drum line took part in the grand opening of 7-Eleven off 6301 Altamesa in Fort Worth. Our community partners from 7-Eleven also donated $711 to the campus as a welcome to the neighborhood.

05 MLK PARADE

Crowley Pride Unified was on display through the streets of downtown Fort Worth on Monday, January 16 in celebration of the life and work of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Football players, coaches, cheerleaders, sponsors and JROTC joined the Board and superintendent to participate in the 38th annual MLK parade and rally! It was a wonderful experience for our students.

06 H.F. STEVENS

The Fifth Grade Choir Invitational on Saturday, January 21 was a huge success. The goal of the event was to recruit incoming fifth graders to the performing arts and help them feel welcomed. Students from the four elementary schools that feed into HFS enjoyed singing with award-winning guest conductor Colton Blake as they gear up for the 23-24 year!

07 WINTER GRADUATION

The class of 2023 welcomed its first six graduates on Monday, January 23.

From Crowley High School:

- Maritza Avila
- John Carbajal

And from North Crowley High School:

- Dejanee Edwards
- Olga Hernandez-Ibanes
- D'May Jones
- Malichi Lester

We congratulate you on your fortitude and determination and look forward to you doing great things in the future!
