

POINTS OF PRIDE #6

01 SUMMER CREEK

The Summer Creek food pantry opened Thursday, February 17 with the help of parent volunteers and the Tarrant Area Food Bank. Families and community members are able to conveniently pick up needed food, clothing or school supply items at the campus pantry.

02 DISABILITY CONNECTIONS FAIR

On Saturday, March 5th, 150 students and families attended this Special Education event. Participants enjoyed over 30 vendors and five sessions on topics such as college programs for students with disabilities, behavior management and the essentials of caregiving.

03 CROWLEY MIDDLE

The Family Academic Night held on Monday, February 21 at CMS helped families discover valuable information about tutoring options to increase academic success and gain access to content specific materials that they could use to assist their students in excelling in their classes.

04 BESS RACE

Bess Race students participated in Read Across America Week February 28 - March 4. Students and staff wore cultural outfits, crazy socks and hats, dressed as their future career and ended the week reading to relax in pajamas. This event was a big hit for the Eagle Family.

05 NORTH CROWLEY HIGH

Each year students with a minimum of 3.6 weighted GPA are invited to apply to become members of National Honor Society. This year a record 95 junior and senior members were selected and inducted into the NCHS chapter. We are very proud of this 24th chapter of the NC National Honor Society.

06 ART AROUND TOWN

Crowley ISD is kicking off Youth Art Month with a new initiative called Art Around Town. This mobile gallery will showcase student artist at various businesses in our community. This month's gallery is on display at Smoked to the Bone BBQ. The artists in residence were also showcased at the Black History Quiz Bowl.

07 NURSE EDUCATORS

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS
ARLINGTON

The CISD Health services team is always looking for ways to work in and through our community to educate and support families. Last month, Cook Children's Hospital welcomed our Coordinator of District Health Services, Nurse Misty VanCampen to lead the Asthma 411 School Health Staff In-Service virtual training. In addition, CISD elementaries were visited by student nurses from UTA. These guest nurse educators shared lessons on topics such as hand hygiene and kindness toward others. We are grateful to have such strong partnerships.
