

POINTS OF PRIDE #9

01 CHISOLM TRAIL FOUNDATION

On Saturday, April 23 The Chisholm Trail Education Foundation hosted runners and walkers of all ages for the Heroes Run Here 5K. Sponsors and participants helped us raise money for our innovative teaching grants that support Crowley ISD educators. Thank you to all!

02 TEACHERS OF THE YEAR

Congratulations to our 2022 Crowley ISD Teachers and Employees of the Year. Their service has been amazing. Check out their pictures and stories on our social media and website. We will announce the district winners next week. Stay tuned!

03 CROWLEY HIGH SCHOOL

The Crowley High School softball program will open the University Interscholastic League playoffs with a best of three-game series versus Saginaw High School, beginning tonight. The Eagles have now qualified for the playoffs in back-to-back years for the first time since the 2011 and 2012 seasons.

04 LANGUAGE SUPPORT

The Crowley ISD Language Support Programs Department will host a Family Engagement Night on Friday, April 29. The event, which is open to families of students participating in a Crowley ISD Bilingual Program, will run from 6-7:30 p.m. at the BRJ CTE Center. Information will be shared regarding the dual language program, TELPAS and much more.

05 CROWLEY HIGH SCHOOL

Destination Diploma took students to the Forth Worth Modern Museum on Friday to experience the art of Texas native Jamal Cyrus. The young men experienced artistic culture as well as a thoughtful lecture by art teacher Misty Ressler and graduation coach Broderick Williams.

06 SYCAMORE

Recognizing the importance of creating space for parents to connect with students at school, Sycamore families are invited to campus at least once a month for either game night after school or Basketball Buddies in the morning. Turnout has been great and most importantly they are having FUN!

07 OAKMONT

Our 2nd grade GATE students had the opportunity to watch a live play from The National Theater about water in Tarrant county to celebrate Earth Day. Each student received a workbook in English or Spanish and Oakmont even received a personal shout-out during the show last Friday, April 22nd.

08 NORTH CROWLEY POWDER PUFF

For the first time since 2016 North Crowley hosted the annual Powder Puff Football Game on April 14th. Four teams of senior and junior girls were coached by junior and senior football players. The winning team Pink Pressure was coached by Kartez White and Jeremiah Dorsey. #girlpower
